

Subscribe to ITI bulletin

If you are not a member of ITI why not subscribe to our magazine, winner of the 2005 FIT award for best periodical!

Out every other month, ITI bulletin contains news and feature articles on issues relevant to the profession, a regular dictionary review section, calendar of events, question and answer section, plus news and reviews of the many ITI events and promotions: ITI Annual Conference, ITI Weekend Workshop, ITI Interpreters Note-taking Weekend, and much much more.

Recent feature articles have focused on the ITI Rates & Salaries Survey, Translation Memory Software (a comparative review of the various products available in the marketplace), Avoiding Bad Debts, and Machine Translation (its accomplishments and inadequacies).

Don't forget too that ITI bulletin is the place to advertise for, and find work as, an in-house or freelance translator.

So whether you would just like to keep abreast of developments in the profession, would like to keep up with the many translation related events in your area, or are interested in finding work, or staff, why not take out a yearly subscription now!
