

Grant & Cutler evening

It's the most pleasant way to shop – an after hours discount evening, wine and nibbles included. The latest LRG event was another resounding success

On Wednesday 21 May savvy ITI members made their way to leading language bookshop Grant & Cutler in central London for a 10 per cent discount shopping evening organised by the London Regional Group.

The store's managing director Stephen Cooper said: 'We were delighted to welcome about 50 ITI members to our open evening and as always it was a popular event.'

'We sold over 100 books, and not all of them dictionaries and books on translation – apparently even translators read Harry Potter!' Stephen Cooper
