

Heidi Kerschl, FITI – German Translator Experienced, creative & reliable

Career milestones so far:

- Staatl. Gepr. D&Ü, Munich (equivalent to BA in Translation & Interpreting)
- Diploma in Marketing
- 2 years in Product Management with Bayer Diagnostik GmbH
- 3 years in Marketing Communications with Lotus Development GmbH
- ITI exam in 1992
- Over 15 years experience as a freelance translator
- 6 years experience as a director of Salford Translations Ltd.
- Fellowship of the Institute of Translation and Interpreting (ITI)
- Examiner of the Chartered Institute of Linguists (CIOL)
- Chair of the Northwest Translators Network

Major translation projects in 2017 – Executive Summary

Translation and editing experience in figures
Translated over 650,000 words
Reviewed over 150,000 words

Technical translation approx. 24,000 words general technical texts, 26,000 words catalogue for bathroom furnishings and fittings, 120,000 words website material for dataloggers 20,000 words automotive (car and motorcycle)

Over 110,000 words IT and telecom including instructions, mobile apps & software localisation, copy transcreation for the quarterly corporate magazine of a leading TV content & cable provider etc.

Over 120,000 words medical translations including device manuals, package inserts for microbiological diagnostics, regular corporate magazines and online training courses for leading pharmaceutical companies

Approx. 200,000 words marketing and management materials (websites, brochures, press releases; code of conduct, anti-bribery, competition law & performance management training courses). New trends here are sustainability and training materials for recruitment companies.

Approx. 30,000 words general translation (market research questionnaires, tourism, food and beverages, cosmetics etc.)

Additional services: Copy editing, transcreation (white papers, brochures, poems and rhymes), website keyword research, translation assessments.

The Stables * 89a Turnstone Road * Stockport
Cheshire * SK2 5XT

e-mail: heidi.kerschl@gmail.com

Heidi Kerschl, FITI – German Translator Experienced, creative & reliable

Public Speaking and Teaching Engagements in 2017

- Delivered webinars, discussion sessions and business mentoring on ITI course "Setting Up as a Freelance Translator (SUFT)" in January, May, September and November
- Ongoing mentoring for current and previous SUFT course participants
- Presentation "Project Managers from Mars Translators from Venus? Better communication through joint training" at the ELIA Together conference in Berlin
- Co-presenter for memsource training for translators and project managers

Other CPD activities

- ITI Conference in Cardiff providing assistance at the Fellows' information desk and attended pre-conference Negotiation Workshop
- Obtained ITI CPD certificate for membership year 2016/2017 and 2017/2018
- Visited family in Germany (2x2 weeks), 1 week in Berlin
- Watch German news, documentaries & films daily (approx. 10 hours per week)
- Keep up to date with German current events & read the following publications daily: Süddeutsche Zeitung, Der Spiegel, The Guardian
- Read German magazine Brand Eins for recruiting, marketing, advertising
- Read German women's magazines for women's issues, cosmetics terminology, advertising etc.
- Subscribe to Spektrum.de (news magazine for advances in science, technology and medicine)
- Subscribe to t3 magazine latest news for IT and telecom
- Alternate reading German and English fiction at a rate of 1-3 books a month. Also read French and Spanish.
- Listen to German language audio books (Audible subscription), often with the express purpose of comparing the German translation to English original text.
- Speak German every day with friends, family members & colleagues
- Participate in German chat rooms on current affairs, computing, health & women's issues
- Active Fellow of the Institute of Translation and Interpreting
- Chair of the North West Translators Network
- Active contributor to numerous online translators' forums

Office: +44 161 – 484 0683 Mobile: +44 771 – 2191 608

e-mail: heidi.kerschl@gmail.com