Summary of rules

- 1) Entries must be submitted by 15 February 2022.
- 2) The achievements to which entries relate must have taken place between 1 January 2021 and 31 December 2021.
- 3) ITI members (all categories) are eligible to enter or be entered for all awards. In addition, non-members may enter for the Student research category and be entered for the Outreach Champion category. Non-members may also enter or be entered for the best performance on a translation and interpreting assignment categories if the assignment was undertaken for an ITI corporate member.
- 4) You may enter an award for yourself or someone else. When entering an award on behalf of someone else, please ensure you have their permission.
- 5) Please ensure all details on the form are correct. We cannot accept changes after submission.
- 6) Achievements should not contravene recognised professional standards and ethical conduct.
- 7) Entries are accepted at the judging committee's discretion. Please ensure you have supplied all material requested, and adhere to the word count. You may provide additional supporting information (e.g. client comments, statistics, press releases), but avoid supplying a large number of additional pages. Judges are not in a position to read books or other substantial documents.
- 8) No liability for undelivered or lost entries will be accepted by Awards organisers.
- 9) Winners will be notified in spring 2022. The judges' decision is final and no correspondence will be entered into. We cannot provide individual feedback to entrants on their entries.
- 10) It is planned that an awards presentation event will take place at the Gala dinner at the 2022 ITI Conference.
- 11) Entry for an award will be deemed as confirmation that winners are happy for their achievement to be publicised via ITI channels, and for case studies and other related material to be promoted when appropriate.
- 12) Judges reserve the right not to make an award in any category.

Entry form: ITI Networks – best event or initiative

This award recognises an event/initiative that has had a significant impact in promoting the work of ITI/what it stands for. The event/initiative will have taken place wholly or partly between 1 January 2021 and 31 December 2021.

Event/initiative objectives could include raising awareness of the Institute and bringing in new members; fostering improved knowledge and competence; enabling more people to access CPD and gain support from experienced practitioners; fostering valuable collaboration with other bodies; new ways to network and socialise.

This award is for a distinct event or initiative and not, for example, for an event programme with a variety of disparate subjects and goals.
